Food Packaging

Despre mine

As a packing staff I know it's responsible for packaging operated. Inspect products for defects and damages before packaging. Ensure accurate labeling and documentation on all packages. Operate warehouse equipment, such as pallet jacks and hand trucks, to move products and materials. Maintain a clean and organized work area. Assist with inventory management by counting and reporting stock levels. Communicate with other warehouse staff and supervisors to ensure efficient workflow. Adhere to all safety procedures and guidelines. People who can perform repetitive tasks in an efficient manner are good fits for this role.
